

The wonderful world of Latitude Enfant

Beautiful and colourful to look at, and featuring an enticing array of textures and sounds, Latitude Enfant's outstanding early learning collection has been exquisitely designed and developed to delight, entertain and stimulate young children.

There are activity rings, activity strappers, playmats, play cubes, playhouses and stacking pyramids - all finished to an exacting standard and as appealing to mums and dads as they are to their babies and toddlers. Ideal for encouraging intimacy between parent and child, these are toys that can be enjoyed together.
